

Agility/Obedience & Rally Cover Letter

Enclosed is the application for obedience, rally, or agility classes with the Richland County Kennel Club (RCKC). Please complete the form and bring it on registration day, SUNDAY, March 9th at 3:00 pm. You may pay with cash or a check made payable to RCKC (Richland County Kennel Club) for the designated amount of your class. .
Please bring a copy of your dog's most recent immunization record. You should also bring your dog with you on registration day.

Obedience registration starts at 3:00. Agility registration starts approx. at 3:45 pm. You will be required to pay for your class at this time, meet the instructor, learn what type of items you will need for the class, and ask the instructor any question(s) you might have.

Puppy classes, for puppies 3-5 months old, will be held on Tuesday nights (if enough interests). Household obedience will be held on Tuesday nights also. Times of classes will be decided on registration day Sunday, March 9th, 2008. Rally obedience will be held on Thursdays (if enough interests) and time of class will be decided on March 9th also. Agility classes (if enough interests) will be held either on Wednesday or Thursday nights. It depends on which instructor teaches. This will also be decided on registration day, March 9th.

There will no be conformation classes this session.

During the night of your class, please arrive early to be able to exercise and potty your dog so you are ready to begin class at the designated time.

To check if your class has been canceled because of bad weather, you can: call the kennel club (419-281-6618) and listen to the voicemail; check our web page at richlandcountycck.org under events calendar; or listen to the following radio stations in Mansfield, Y-105, Cruisin' 100, and WMAN 1400. In Ashland, you can listen to WNCO 101.3. Cancellations will also be listed on Mansfield's cable TV WMFD.

We hope you will enjoy the class(s) you have signed up for!

Thank you for your interest at the Richland County Kennel Club!
